

Course Catalog - Fall 2008

Business

101 Business Prof Responsibility credit: 2 hours.

Introduces College of Business freshmen to Professional Responsibility in Business. Begins by developing the concept of professional responsibility within a personal and interperson context. Students will discover the meaning of professional responsibility in their career and in professional relationships. Continues by expanding the concept of professional responsibility to an ethical balance of the profit motive and corporate responsibility within the global context.

120 Business Honors Seminar credit: 2 hours.

Introduction to business and an overview of the role of the College of Business and the University of Illinois in providing opportunities for undergraduates to prepare to become business leaders. Introduction to the College of Business Honors Program, a leadership program for approximately 40 incoming freshmen in the College of Business. Students will begin to work as a team to use leadership in service to all undergraduates in the College of Business. Approved for both letter and S/U grading. Prerequisite: Membership in freshman class of College of Business Honors Program.

199 Undergraduate Open Seminar credit: 0 to 5 hours.

Approved for both letter and S/U grading. May be repeated.

299 BUS Internship credit: 0 hours.

Accommodates students who must be registered for a course at the University while completing an internship, either because the internship is unpaid and the company requires registration, or because of visa requirements. Only internships in the College of Business will be considered. Approved for S/U grading only.

399 Business Study Abroad credit: 0 to 18 hours.

Upon prior written approval of the College of Business Office of Undergraduate Affairs, a student may earn up to 18 credit hours per term undertaking a study and/or research project in international business at accredited foreign institutions or approved overseas programs. Final determination of appropriate credit will be made upon completion of the work done abroad. While absent from the Urbana-Champaign campus, the student must continue to pay all fees required by the University of Illinois to retain continuity of enrollment and to allow the time spent away from this campus to count toward residency. Approved for both letter and S/U grading. Maximum of 18 hours per term and 36 hours total. Prerequisite: One academic year (or one semester in the case of transfer students) in residence at UIUC, good academic standing, completion of at least thirty semester hours toward the bachelor's degree, and prior approval of course work by the College of Business Office of Undergraduate Affairs. Some programs have additional requirements.
